

About Night of Advocacy

Every day 7 to 11 kids are removed from their homes because of abuse or neglect. Many of those children enter the foster care system by no fault of their own. Their stories are unfolding in our backyards but we don't often see them. Right now, in your zip code there are children facing some of the darkest days of their lives and they need someone to see them, believe in them, and give them hope for tomorrow.

At Night of Advocacy you can come together with neighbors and leaders to illuminate hope for our city's kids who are waiting in the darkness. See a child's journey up close and understand how you can be a part of solving the crisis. You'll also hear from the former leader of the White House Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives, Jedd Medefind, who today serves as the President of the Christian Alliance for Orphans. Jedd is passionate about helping vulnerable children.

Last year's Night of Advocacy drew over 800 individuals from across our community who came together to shine the brightest light for kids. This year, Night of Advocacy will be hosted at Spanish River Church in Boca Raton. The evening will kick off with an exclusive VIP Dinner experience for sponsors. In addition there will be tents, food trucks, and live music for event guests. Followed by our main event and the opportunity to join the movement in advocacy and support for our community's children.

Your company can invest in the lives of kids in crisis by partnering with us at Night of Advocacy. Sponsorship opportunities are available on a first come, first serve basis. Deadline is Friday April 13.
